

We went to visit my cousin and my aunt and uncle.
I brought my bike and some of my favorite toys.

I showed my bike to my cousin.
He said, "Mine is faster." So we had a race.
My cousin won.

He showed me his tree house.
He dared me to climb up, so I did.

Then my cousin pushed
the ladder away.
I started to cry.

My cousin tried to put the ladder back,
but it was too heavy.
My uncle had to come and help.

I showed my Super Critter doll to my cousin.

“Let’s see how far Super Critter can fly,” he said. He threw my doll out the window.

I was so mad. But then he helped me find Super Critter.
And he brushed him off.

We built a robot
with my uncle's tools.

Then my uncle came and told us
we weren't supposed to use his tools.
I didn't know that.

My cousin and I had to put everything away.
We didn't even get to finish our robot.

We played checkers.
First my cousin was winning.
Then I was winning.

My cousin knocked the checkerboard over.
Nobody won.

Later we had a pillow fight.
My cousin hit me real hard.

I tried to hit him back real hard.
I missed and hit the lamp real hard instead.

It fell on the floor and broke.

We played hide-and-seek.
I hid first.

Then my cousin hid.
I couldn't find him.

Then a monster jumped out
from behind the door.
It chased me downstairs.

My aunt caught the monster.
It was just my cousin.

“Let’s play some more,” my cousin said.

But I didn't want to play with him.
I was too mad.

Finally Mom said,
I was glad. I got my jacket on.

Then my cousin came downstairs and handed me a piece of paper. It said, "I'm sorry."

And he looked like he was sorry.

Maybe my cousin isn't so bad after all.
