Brainzy

GAMES FOR EARLY READERS

We are proud to announce our newest educational product: Brainzy, a compilation of web-based games that aid phonics and basic reading skills.

This workbook introduces kids to the colorful characters of Brainzy games. Read, draw, write and roll along with them!

Welcome to The Land of Knowhere

Can you find all of the characters in this map of Knowhere?

Meet Roly

Roly is the world's largest and roundest tabby cat! In fact, he is so round that instead of walking he likes to roll from place to place. Roly is always hungry for knowledge, and loves to help kids eat up knowledge too.

Let's color Roly!

Read each sentence out loud to your child. Have her trace each dotted word. Then she'll add the right colors to the picture of Roly.

Roly is orange.

He has stripes.

They are brown.

Meet Floyd

Floyd is a very talkative dog. He loves reading and writing just as much as we do! In his favorite game, Floyd gets to ride in a hot air balloon, but he can't make it without the help of some clever early readers. Kids will pop balloons to help Floyd make it off the ground.

Let's color Floyd!

Read the sentences out loud to your child. Have her trace each dotted word. Don't forget to color in the picture of Floyd!

Floyd is purple.

Trace the shape that matches Floyd.

Meet TuTu

TuTu is the Fairy God-monster of Knowhere, here to grant kids with knowledge. Tutu loves to fly using its skirt as a helicopter. With a wave of the wand, TuTu will help kids find their way through many reading challenges of Knowhere.

Let's color TuTu!

Read each sentence out loud to your child. Have him trace each dotted word. Then he'll add the right colors to the picture of TuTu.

TuTu's body is teal.

TuTu's skirt is purple.

TuTu's wand is pink.

Meet Birdee

Birdee is one of the most mischievous creatures of Knowhere. She'll fly off with your books to build her nest, or she'll jumble up the pages so you have to put them back in order again. Even though she's a handful, Birdee is so cute, she gets away with just about anything!

Let's color Birdee!

Read the questions out loud to your child. Have him trace each answer. Don't forget to color the picture of Birdee!

Birdee is yellow.

Trace the shape that matches Birdee.

Meet Officer Ice Cream

Officer Ice Cream is the community helper of Knowhere. She makes sure everyone plays nice and stays on task with their learning. But she really likes to have fun too! Her favorite activities are driving the bus to school and taking photos of silly things around the Land of Knowhere.

Let's color Officer Ice Cream!

Read each sentence out loud to your child. Have him trace each dotted word. Then he'll color in the picture of Officer Ice Cream.

Ice Cream's head is pink.

Her cone is green.

Her hat is blue.

Meet Muggo

Muggo is everyone's favorite minion. He was created in a laboratory in Knowhere long ago, and now he is here to serve your every need. His favorite activity is creating copies of himself. He and the other Muggos love to host games in the lab. They'll need your help to power their creations!

Let's color Muggo!

Read each sentence out loud to your child. Have her trace each dotted word. Then she'll add the right colors to the picture of Muggo.

Muggo's face is orange.

His coat is gray.

Trace the shape that matches Muggo.

Meet Cuz Cuz

Cuz Cuz is a wild creature of the Land of Knowhere. He loves to play in the mud, and is eager to help you play some fun games. However, he's mischievous too. He'll eat up words or letters that are left lying around Knowhere. See if you can catch him in time for a bath!

Let's color Cuz Cuz!

Read each sentence out loud to your child. Have her trace each dotted word. Then she'll add the right colors to the picture of Cuz Cuz.

Cuz Cuz is purple.

His nose is blue.

His feet are blue.

Meet Penelope

Penelope is the most clever character in the Land of Knowhere. She loves to help kids learn, and it is her job to make sure everyone gets to school on time. Play some memory games and word-making games with her to build your brain!

Let's color Penelope!

Read each sentence out loud to your child. Have him trace each dotted word. Then he'll add the right colors to the picture of Penelope.

Penelope is yellow.

She has brown hair.

Her wings are rainbow.

How to Draw Roly

Start by drawing a circle.

Draw 2 triangle ears.

Add ovals for his belly and his muzzle.

Make eyes using circles. One eye will be slightly bigger.

Give him a smile and an oval nose.

Now use a circle and a crescent shape for his legs.

Draw his paws using little circles or ovals.

Add a curvy tail and some curvy eyebrows.

Add triangle stripes and you're all done!

How to Draw TuTu

Start with the body,
with 4 bumps on top.

Draw a skirt the same way
you'd draw a cloud.

Give the skirt an inner lining.

Add stick arms and legs.
One hand will be in a fist.

Draw a round muzzle
and an oval nose.

Give TuTu an open smile,
with dots for whiskers.

Add little bumps for teeth and a tongue.

Now give TuTu teeny dot eyes with eyelashes above them.

Finish with a crown and a star-shaped wand!

How to Draw Floyd

First draw a rectangle for Floyd's body.

Now add zigzag ears.

Add 2 ovals for his belly and his muzzle.

Add stick legs at the corners.

Add stick arms, with round fists on his hips.

Give him a crescent-shaped tail.

His eyes are circles with black dots in the middle.

Don't forget his eyebrows!

Last, Floyd needs an oval nose and mouth, with whisker dots.

Find the Differences

Look through the group of TuTus below and circle the spots where each picture is different from the one pictured here. →

One of these pictures matches TuTu exactly. Can you find the one?

Whose Shadow?

The creatures of Knowhere love to play hide and seek.
Draw a line to match each creature to its shadow shape!

Roly Paper Doll

Let's play dress-up with Roly!
Which outfit will he wear today?

Connect the Dots

Which character is this? Count to 12 and connect the dots to find out! Then color the picture.

My name is

FLOYD

Count Muggo!

Yikes! It looks like the Muggos have been busy with the copy machine. Add up each group of Muggos!

Bonus: How many Muggos are on this page in all?
