

We will do everything together,
just me and my little brother.

We will go to the orchard to pick apples, and I will help him climb up.

We will have bunk beds,
and I will have the top
'cause I'm bigger.

We can play
space wars.

We will be real tough,
just me and my little brother.

The bully will run away
when we come around.

We will stay up
late and watch
the spooky
shows on TV,
just me and
my little brother.

At birthday parties we will eat the most ice cream and cake, just me and my little brother.

We can play cowboys
and Indians,
and I'll let him
catch me.

On Halloween we can go
trick-or-treating together,

just me
and my little brother.

At Thanksgiving we will break the wishbone, and I will let him win.

In the winter we will build a snowman.

We will build a snow fort and have snowball fights.

Just me and my little brother will be on the same side.

On Christmas morning
we will share our presents.

At Easter time we will hunt eggs together,
just me and my little brother.

And if he finds the most eggs,
I won't mind.

I will teach my little brother to ride his bicycle.

He will have to practice a while.

We will play all day
and never get tired.

There are so many things we can do,

just me and
my little brother.

But first he'll have to learn how to walk.
